Local information:

This is a quiet secluded site situated right on the edge of Brown Moss Nature Reserve which covers an area of 80 acres, it is one of Shropshire's most interesting sites for birds and also has more than 200 species of wild plants, with beautiful signposted walks.

A short, pretty walk (0.9 miles) to the village of Ash finds the White Lion public house, a typical rustic pub with an enviable reputation for food. Whitchurch, a bustling market town is just 2 miles away.
